

Stop and Say Hello

Frankie Valli

Is that who I think it is?
Oh yes I'm sure it is
If I could only catch her eye
Then she would stop, and say hello
And I would try to let her know
That I was wrong, oh how I long
To make her understand, and take my hand
Hey is she looking this way?

Oh why did I hide my face
And why can't I just erase
All of the time I made her cry
Then I could stop, and say hello
Tell her I never left her go
'Cause I was wrong, oh how I long
To make her understand, and take my hand
Before she walks away

If she would stop, and say hello
Then I would never let her go
If she would stop
Stop and say hello
If she would stop and say hello
If she would stop and say hello
