

Ludicrous

Frankmusik

Little girl who walks alone
You never needed anyone
But I can see the tears in your eyes
You lost your wings that used to let you fly

Baby don't be ludicrous ludicrous
'Cos everyday you're losing us losing us
Baby don't be ludicrous ludicrous
'Cos everyday you're losing us losing us

And I can't run away
'Cos all your love can make me stay

You got a heart that's paper thin
And every time it hurts it folds and tears within
Your house of cards are fallin' they don't linger
They disappear and slip between your fingers

Baby don't be ludicrous ludicrous
'Cos everyday you're losing us losing us
Baby don't be ludicrous ludicrous
'Cos everyday you're losing us losing us

And I can't run away
'Cos all your love can make me stay

I'll catch when you fall
I'll catch when you fall
I'll catch when you fall
I'll catch when you fall
Fall

Baby don't be ludicrous ludicrous
'Cos everyday you're losing us losing us
Baby don't be ludicrous ludicrous
'Cos everyday you're losing us losing us

And I can't run away
'Cos all your love can make me stay

They disappear and slip between your fingers
Baby don't be ludicrous ludicrous
'Cos everyday you're losing us losing us
