

Without You

Frankmusik

I guess it's got bright
I wouldn't normally try
But I'm taking my chance this time
Life is too short for waiting
So I'm not hesitating
Help me make a century a memory
Cause I don't wanna do this on my own no more

Without you, oh
No, I can't be, be without you, oh
I tried to before, oh yeah
No, I can't be, be without you, oh
I tried before but there is no world without you

Not a clue before I met you
I never thought I could have, have you for myself
Perfect picture, yeah
Just a [?]
Don't let me forget you

Without you, oh
No, I can't be, be without you, oh
I tried to before, oh yeah
No, I can't be, be without you, oh
I tried before but there is no world without you

Hold me close, darling
Don't let go
Promise we are the one you chose

Without you, oh
No, I can't be, be without you, oh
I tried to before, oh yeah
Without you, oh
No, I can't be, be without you, oh
I tried before but there is no world without you
