

Ada

Frans

Ada, you're not following
Not following your heart

Say you wanna be a lady
You always get in trouble, trouble now
You wanna jump but you fall too hard
Yeah

Like a bunch of wilted flowers
In the sun craving water, water now
There's an ending but there ain't no start
No

There's a crazy storm on the horizon
Turn your butt around under the skies, and
Oh...

Ada, no, you're not following
Not following your heart, no

You're dancing closer to the fire
You're not in place to find a lover, lover, no
You make it stronger but you're bound to burn
Yes, you're bound to...

There's a crazy storm on the horizon
Turn your butt around under the skies, and
Oh...

Ada, you're not following
Not following your heart, no
No (not following)
I said, Ada, you're not following
Not following your heart, no
Why (not following your heart) no

Well, who is that empty soldier in the sky?
Well, maybe it's all just a massive lie
Oh...

Ada, uh, you're not following
Not following your heart, no
Bada-badum...
I said, Ada, you're not following
Not following your heart, no
(Following your heart) no...
I said, Ada, oh, you're not following
(Not following) no, no
Not following your heart

I said, Ada, no, you're not following
Not following your heart
