

Go Bye Bye

Frans

When you think of me, ah
Sad, but true

Nah, Well, ah,
My legs are getting heavy from all the decision making
Got me thinking "was it real? was it right?" Or were we faking
Possibilities of you and me, in the future
Remember that day by the sea

Well, I guess this is the process "how you learn, from your mistakes"
Sometimes you give but you get nothing in return, no ah, what a waste

Go bye bye, don't wait for me my friend
Go bye bye yeah, everything good must end
I said go bye bye, and treasure each memory, nah
Go bye bye, when you think of me

Ah, don't have no remorse I even smile at our picture
Still I don't deny that the experience made us richer nah
Na there's no possibility for you and me and just forget
The day by the sea ah,

I guess this is the process "how you learn, from your mistakes"
Sometimes you give a de ba you don't get in return, nah, ah, what a waste

Ah
Go bye bye, don't wait for me my friend
Go bye bye yeah, everything good must end
I said go bye bye and treasure each memory
Go bye bye, Go bye bye bye bye

I guess this is how you learn, from your mistakes
Sometimes you give
But you get nothing, no, ah what a waste

Go bye bye, don't wait for me
Go bye bye, nah, proceed

I said go bye bye, just, please nah,
You got to go bye bye, everything good must end
I said go bye bye, and treasure each memory
Proceed, just leave, go bye bye

Go buy yourself, a new dog, a new life, I don't care
Go buy yourself, a new soul, I don't know
Just get out of my way, heyeahyeah
Please
Didn't mean that, go
