

Monday

Frans

(Oh, my God)

Deal with it on Monday? Yeah

I've had a couple rough weeks
I decided to stay home, I had Pepsi left from yesterday
And Netflix on my phone
But at 8AM, Becky called
Jack was already on his way out
And I was starin' at my bank account, yeah
I barely could afford another take out, well

All my problems pilin' up, but hey, yeah
I will deal with it on Monday

I had only one job
That I decided to take on
So I set alarm at nine o'clock
And well, stayed home
After seven sick episodes
Dawn was upon me, it was day out
And I was strugglin' to leave the bed
Postpone is what I'm really good at, yeah

All my problems pilin' up, but hey, yeah
I will deal with it on Monday, yeah
I can't be bothered, I give up today
I will deal with it on Monday

How long can I really do this?
Ignorin' my dishes for days
How long can I really do this?
I buy, I bought, then I pay
How long can I really do this?
Throwin' my money away, well
I will deal with it on Monday

All my problems pilin' up, but hey, yeah
I will deal with it on Monday
I can't be bothered, I give up today
I will deal with it on Monday

My problems pilin', yeah
Can I really do this?
Can't be bothered, I give up today
And I will deal with it on Monday
