

Anyone in Love

Franz Ferdinand

Above the fold of covers ten thousand volts hit when her arm fell accidentally...
But she didn't move it,
despite the singing skin...
You didn't move yours either did you though?

Never knew anyone in love!,
never knew anyone in love!,
never knew anyone in love
in the way that you were...

Never knew anyone in love
in the way that you were...

What other people call passion is one frame of your film, one frame seen accidentally...
How could a love like this one remain among us?.
It was a love that had to...
Had to leave!

Never knew anyone in love!,
never knew anyone in love!,
never knew anyone in love
in the way that you were...

Never knew anyone in love
in the way that you were...

Don't be surprised if there's a book about it based roughly on a film about it, something on your TV about it...
And then (now!), a song about it!...
Alright!

Never knew anyone in love!,
never knew anyone in love!,
never knew anyone in love
in the way that you were...

Never knew anyone in love
in the way that you were...

Never knew anyone in love!,
Never knew anyone in love!,
Never knew anyone in love
in the way that you were...

Never knew anyone in love
in the way that you were...

Never knew anyone!,
never knew anyone!,
never knew anyone!,
never knew anyone!,

never knew anyone
in love!...
