

Everydaydreamer

Franz Ferdinand

No, I'm fine, I just need time
To let my mind relax, find a detour
I may be here with you but I'm not in the room
With perspective, enough perspective
Anything can disappear until all we can see
Is the point of infinity

No, this life isn't over until we don't know it's over
The unknown return
To before it began
It began

Well, I'm an every day dreamer
Everyday dreamer
I'm looking through a window in a wall
Yes, I'm an every day dreamer
And every daydreamer knows
Every dream goes

Put the dream down, don't put the dream down
These dreams are making nonsense
Of this waking sense
Of these waking senses

Memories and dreameries are not how we remember
Remember who we are
But who we think we are
Think we are

Well, I'm an everyday dreamer
Everyday dreamer
Every day I'm dreaming of you all
Yes, I'm an everyday dreamer
Everyday dreamer

Don't put a good dream down
Don't put a good dream down
Don't put a good dream down

Every day I'm dreaming of you all
Always an every day dreamer
And every daydreamer knows
Every dream goes
Every dream goes
Every dream goes
Every dream goes
Every dream goes
