Frazeyp Ford

Well, we came here together
Oh, like a four leaf clover
A force they can't be taming
All out amazing
Other things may want you
Might take the best of you
But hold any way that you know how

It's midnight in the kitchen
Got a situation
Of violent colour

Count backwards til' you get to one
And call my name out loud

A dragonfly he landed
Shimmering wings expanded
Tiny divination
Of god's creation

Behold, there is beauty in this world
So hold any way that you know how

Oh, young thing
You cannot be tamed in this life
Find your feet
Go wide for the red western sky
It's all yours, go get what you want
It's your life

I'll be here, I'll watch you set them on fire
I'll be here, I'll watch you set them on fire

Oh, young thing, you cannot be tamed in this life
I'll be here, in the red western sky
