

Morons

Freak Kitchen

Why do we let morons rule the world?
Why do we let morons do the damage that they do?
Why do we let morons rule the world?
Because I'm a moron too
And so my friend are you
I'm a moron too
And so my friend are you

Why do we let morons rule the world?
Why do we let morons do the damage that they do?
Why do we let morons rule the world?
Because I'm a moron too
And so my friend are you
I'm a moron too
And so my friend are you

Bystanders and cowards
Raised on sleeping pills
The creeps and clowns are out there
While we're tilting at windmills

Deaf, dumb, blind and lazy
Share some post at best
Put them out of business
Boycott and protest

Why do we let morons rule the world?
Why do we let morons do the damage that they do?
Why do we let morons rule the world?

Because I'm a moron too
And so my friend are you
I'm a moron too
And so my friend are you
So my friend are you
Why do we let morons rule the world?

Why do we let morons rule the world?
Why do we let morons do the damage that they do?
Why do we let morons rule the world?
Because I'm a moron too

Middle-aged male cynicism
Paralyzed by dubiety
When we're non-resistant
We nourish stupidity
Distrust and passivity
A global idiocracy

Why do we let morons rule the world?
Why do we let morons do the damage that they do?
Why do we let morons rule the world?
Because I'm a moron too
(I'm a moron too)
And so my friend are you
(So my friend are you)
I'm a moron too

(I'm a moron too)
And so my friend are you
