

Only A Dream

Freak Kitchen

I've had it, I'm done
This scared little one
Is afraid of you no more

I refuse to cave in
That sinister grin
Shall have to go

The horrible stuff
Been through enough
Damaged goods for sure

But I am using the pain
To stay sane
To learn, to grow

Or is it only a dream?

The tornado siren cry

In the blink of an eye
Life was swept away

These turbulent years
Feeding off my tears
Messed me up all right

I've been falling
Falling and falling
Time for judgement Day

I've made up my mind
Leave the darkness behind
Take up a fight

Or is it only a dream?

Only a dream...
