

Air Maxes

Fred again..

Rate the Uber 5 stars, reclined in the back
Bottles by my feet
Better than 20hrs in the rental
Micro sleep
20 excuses tell em where the fuck I'd been
I need to be a doctor not a pop star
Yeah I'm playing need for speed
Thru this 10-inch screen
They're burning can't catch up to me
I need to be a doctor
Mental in this hire car
Close em eyes, close em eyes and
Let the driver speak

Right foot like an anchor
I'm loaded up heavy
Could not thank ya more for all these things
I'm carrying to the graveyard
Swear I've heard it all
Born to smoke the streets out forced to hold a mic
It's cold tonight, brother I might just need a light
Maybe I need a taser to the chest
But then I think about the rest like
Where would I be without them all, where'd they be without me
Where would I be without them all, where'd they be without me
Where would I be without them all, where'd they be without me

Regrets, I don't wanna have em
Secrets, I can't let them have em

Thanking them for airmaxes and thanking them for skylines
Couldn't be here without them both
I wouldn't be in the booth with hopes and dreams
Passing through an RBT they're asking me
Do you know the reason why we let you free
Nah
Met so many people who been good to me
I might just have to pay em back, one day
One eye on the prize the other on attack
20hrs in the rental while I micro sleep
Devil on my shoulder saying
That I shoulda been a doctor

Right foot like an anchor
I'm loaded up heavy
Could not thank ya more for all these things
I'm carrying to the graveyard
Swear I've heard it all
Born to smoke the streets out forced to hold a mic
It's cold tonight, brother I might just need a light
Maybe I need a taser to the chest
But then I think about the rest like
Where would I be without them all, where'd they be without me
Where would I be without them all, where'd they be without me
Where would I be without them all, where'd they be without me

Secrets, I can't let them have em

Regrets, I don't wanna have em
Secrets, I can't let them have em
Regrets, I don't wanna have em
