Angie (Interlude)

Fred again..

I want you to see me, Fred, I'm here
These guys are givin' me life

In this smoking chaos
Our shoulderblades kissed
I found you
I'm deep divin' into your emotions
You know who it is when I come through

Wakin' up
It's my fault, I know it now
It's my fault, I know it now
I found you
It's too hard to know yourself
It's too hard, I know it well
Mmm

Yeah
I'm so tired of bein' strong
(Inside of my head)
Let her out now, it won't be long
(Inside of my house)
But I'm so tired of bein' strong
(I found you exploding)
(I found you)

Callin' out
A weight off of no one else
I know what I wanna know
(I found you beautiful)
Breakin' up
They tell me you're doin' well
It's my fault, I lost my faith
(Wish I had you)

Oh, I'm so tired of bein' strong
(I want you to see me, Fred, I'm here)
Mmm, just say somethin', it won't be long
(We gon' make it through)
Mmm, I'm so tired of bein' strong
(We gon' make it through)
(Wish I had you near me now)
