

Me (Heavy)

Fred again..

Do you feel like talkin'?
I feel like bein' open
I feel my thoughts run around each evening
But I'm glad I'm feelin'
I wanna run in there and steal you out
Unplug the wires and kiss your mouth
You don't need another whiteboard evening
But I need you breathin'

Beg from my knees, oh
She's all I need
It won't be long
And I know you're holding on
I'm so tired of being strong

But I don't want you to see this face
It's time to be brave (I've been standing here)
So I pray for the same thing each evenin'
My baby's healin'

Beg from my knees, oh
She's all I need
I know you're holdin' on
And it won't be long
I'm so tired of being strong

I found you exploding
I found you beautiful
I don't know a thing that could feel more heavy
Babe, I'm ready
