

Jenny Smith

Fred Eaglesmith

Old Jenny Smith lives all alone
Never been too far from home
Across the Decoration Bridge
Never been off of the ridge

She just wants a new screen door
To keep the flies off of the porch
Cool the kitchen when it's warm
Hear the rain when it storms

Her old man, he went to fight
Some old war that wasn't right
She waited on the road for him
He never came back again

She just wants a new screen door
To keep the flies off of the porch

Cool the kitchen when it's warm
Hear the rain when it storms

Old Jenny Smith walks down the lane
They moved her mailbox up the way
No one writes her, just the same
She goes to check it everyday

She just wants a new screen door
To keep the flies off of the porch
Cool the kitchen when it's warm
Hear the rain when it storms
Cool the kitchen when it's warm
Hear the rain when it storms
