

Pretty Girl

Fred Eaglesmith

Softer than the month of May
Brighter than a summer's day
Quieter than a whisper on the evening breeze
Shining like morning stars
I don't know who you are
But what's a pretty girl like you
Doing without me

Butterflys in June
Diamonds on the moon
Sparkling like reflections on the sea
I like your summer dress
I like your quiet breath
But what's a pretty girl like you
Doing without me

Without me
What's a pretty girl like you
What's a pretty girl like you
What's a pretty girl like you
Doing without me

And I've sat and stared for months
I climbed up a watertower
I put it up there for all the world to see
What's a pretty girl like you
What's a pretty girl like you
What's a pretty girl like you
Doing without me
Without me
Without me
