

Sliver Of The Moon

Fred Eaglesmith

Just a sliver of the moon

Just a wisp of a girl

A hint of perfume

In a tiny little world

Just a drop of spring

Just a favorite song

One I have to sing

I've fallen in love

The treetops quietly sign

The dewdrops turn to mist

Teardrops in her eyes

A quickly stolen kiss

A secret on the wind

And stars blinking above

I've done it once again

I've fallen in love

A secret on the wind

Stars blinking above

I've done it once again

I've fallen in love
