

Sugarcane

Fred Eaglesmith

Sugarcane do you still love me?
Sugarcane do you still care?
Sugarcane you've been out all night
Now it looks like you're going out again

Sugarcane you're always dancing
You've always got a drink in your hand
Sugarcane you're always laughing
Sugarcane you're a wild, wild thing

I never knew anybody like you

You look so good but you're oh, so unkind
Sugarcane do you still love me?
Sugarcane do you still want to be mine

I never knew anybody like you
You look so good but you're oh, so unkind
Sugarcane do you still love me?
Sugarcane do you still want to be mine
Sugarcane do you still want to be mine
