

Give Me a Clean Heart

Fred Hammond

Give me a clean heart
To see You like I should, hey
To walk the path that's right
To do the things You would
Give me a clean heart and I will serve nobody, but You

Give me a clean heart
To lose the double mind
To believe You when You tell me
Everything will be just fine
Just lay Your hands on me Lord
And I will be brand new

And I am calling out to You for a strength exchange
I will gladly take Your joy for my weakness
Give me a clean heart and I will serve nobody, but You
(Give me a clean heart and I will serve nobody but You)
{Hey, yeah let the band play for two now, come on now}

Give me a clean heart
A better one I pray
To stay on the path You've chosen
And stick with it all the way
Give me a clean heart and I will serve nobody, but You

Give me a clean heart
I'm coming now to You
To keep my heart from fainting
This is all I know to do
Just lay Your hands on me Lord
And I will be brand new

And I am worshiping Your great and holy name
I'm determined to have life with no chains
Give me a clean heart and I will serve nobody but You
(Give me a clean heart and I will serve nobody but You)
{Noel won't you play now, won't you play now, now, now}

Give me a clean heart and I will serve nobody, but You
