

I Will Find A Way

Fred Hammond

I've lost some joy, I've lost some time
Now it feels like I will lose my mind
Journeyed long and lost my way
And now it feels like I've lost is all I say

Searching here and over there for what 've lost
Where is it, I don't know
I will find a way

I will find a way to lift up my hands (lift up my hands)
And I will find a way to worship You Lord (find a way, I will find a way)
And though my heart is low, I'll find a way to give You praise
I'll find a way to love You more

I've lost so much down through the years
It seems that all I find here lately is a face so full of tears
I search each dark and empty place
The peace I used to know, somehow I have misplaced

Searching here and over there for the things lost
I don't have them anymore

I will find a way to lift up my hands (lift up my hands)
And I will find a way to worship You Lord (find a way, I will find a way)
And though my heart is low I'll find a way to give You praise
I'll find a way to love You more

One thing I've not lost is will to move ahead
And I've kept a faith that trust in You Lord
And I find way down within myself, a love for You Lord that overflows
But I know that I can love You more with every loss and though it all

I will find a way to lift up my hands (lift up my hands)
And I will find a way to worship You Lord (find a way, I will find a way)
And though my life is broken, I'll find a way to give You praise
I'll find a way to love You more

I'll find a way
I know I will, I know I will, ooh ooh
And though my life is broken I'll find a way to give You praise
I will find a way to love, I will find a way to love
I will find a way to love You more
