

It Just Gets Sweeter

Fred Hammond

All alone, Lord when I think of You
So faithful, loving and true
Not another love comes even close
I wanna share You with all of the world

With a name I really love to call
For no real reason at all
Just the mention brings the victory
Gets all in my hands and all in my feet

Everyday it just gets sweeter
And I love You more
How would I make it, I couldn't take it
I'm holding on and won't let go

Now this feeling I can't describe
For the healing You brought in my life, yeah
You're still the mender of broken hearts
Hearing the cry of the one in the dark

To the one that wants to know the truth, ooh yeah
Here's what I wanna say to you
Try Him for yourself and you will see
Why I say everyday just gets sweet

Everyday it just gets sweeter
And I love You more
How would I make it, I couldn't take it
I'm holding on and won't let go

Everyday it just gets sweeter
And I love You more
How would I make it, I couldn't take it
I'm holding on and won't let go

You're ready for this
Take two steps to the back
(One and two)
And two steps to the front
(One and two)
Now to the left and to the right
Get your praise on

Take two steps to the back
(One and two)
And two steps to the front
(One and two)
Now to the left and to the right
Get your praise on

Everyday You get much better to me
(Better)
And everyday You get much sweeter
(Sweeter)
And just mention of Your name
(Mention of Your name, joy replaces pain)
And with my whole heart I'll love You always

Better, each day with You is much sweeter
Mention of Your name, joy replaces pain
And with my whole heart I'll love You always

Better, sweeter
Mention of Your name, joy replaces pain
And with my whole heart I'll love You always

Better, each day with You is much sweeter
Mention of Your name, joy replaces pain
And with my whole heart I'll love You always

Better, each day with You is much sweeter
Mention of Your name, joy replaces pain
And with my whole heart I'll love You always
