

Make The Angels Cry

Fred Hammond

We're a nation
And we've left the truth
And God we trust
We've seem to set aside
Rejecting Him
Is enough to make the angels cry

We're the church
And we are sanctified, it's true
But we watch the world
Just senseless die
Playing safe
Is enough to make the angels cry

For God so loved the world
He gave His Son so that we could live
And we must, oh, so proud proclaim
His wondrous gift, His gift

We're believers, let us all unite
With holy boldness turn the lost to Christ
See them through His eyes
Then we won't make the angels cry
Make the angels cry
