

Wake Up

Fred Hammond

Times are changing, rearranging
Soon the world will be its own enemy, hey
Days grow shorter, nights grow longer
While the plight of man wonders helplessly, hey

Everybody sing with me
Wake up, hey, every man, every woman
Wake up, hey, great is God who is coming
To judge the right and the wrong

Wake up
Oh, wake up
Wake up
Why don't you please wake up

This is your day, this is your time
Voice your choice or be left behind, hey
The clock is tickin', hear it clickin'
Speak up now
This message is for all mankind

Everybody say, wake up
Wake up, every man, every woman
Wake up, hey, great is God who is coming
To judge the right and the wrong

Wake up
Wake up
Wake up
It's time, it's time

Hey, sound the alarm
You know He's on His way
Together, those who will only
Trust Him and obey, hey

It's time
It's time to rise and take it from me
Time to wake up
Time to wake up, hey, no time to sleep
Open your eyes
Open your eyes so you can see
His love for you
His love for you can set you free
Hey...

Wake up, hey, every man, every woman
Wake up, hey, great is God who is coming
To judge the right and the wrong

Wake up
Wake up, hey
Wake up
Can't you see the signs of the times

Wake up, every man, every woman

Wake up, hey, great is God who is coming
To judge the right and the wrong

Wake up
Wake up
You've got to open your eyes
Wake up
And see the signs of the times

Wake up, every man, every woman
Wake up, hey, great is God who is coming
(Wake up)
To judge the right and the wrong
(Great is God who is coming)

You've got to open your eyes
Wake up
Oh...

(Wake up)
Wake up, every man
Wake up, every woman
(Wake up)
Every boy and girl
(Great is God who is coming)
Soon He's coming
To judge the right and the wrong

Wake up
Wake up
Wake up, hey, hey...
