

You're So Beautiful

Fred Hammond

Who can find a treasure like you?
Just like finding a diamond so rare
There's a beat when you come in the room
From your walk and the bounce of your hair
Cause it's your eyes (and the peace that they display)
And it's your smile girl (that takes my breath away)
It's your heart (that loves deeper than the sea)
Now and your mine and the words that come to me is... you're so
You're so beautiful, you're so beautiful
You're so beautiful, you're so beautiful
Now it's your style girl that creates the moment
But it's the way that you think that intrigues
And when your heart reaches out to the heavens
God really listens
Because you never never never (wanna cause no harm)
And your ways your ways (are beautiful and more)
And when you speak girl (you know just what to say)
And if you haven't been told let me tell you today
You're so beautiful, you're so beautiful, (soooooo)

You're so beautiful, you're so beautiful (God made you girl) you're so beautiful, (And if you need to be told) you're so beautiful
You're so beautiful, you're so beautiful
Love really flows from your heart
And the essence of you is so sweet
And inside is the truth of your way
And you deserve all the love you can handle
You're so beautiful, you're so beautiful
You're so beautiful, you're so beautiful
Beautiful...
When I looked in the mirror
Didn't always see
Somebody beautiful looking back at me
But then love came along made me realize
That the girl in the mirror was beautiful all the time
It's the way you walk, girl (you're so beautiful)
And the way you talk girl (you're so beautiful)
The way you smile girl (you're so beautiful)
Beautiful (you're so beautiful) beautiful
