Yo, my memoirs are like the Anarchist's Cookbook Meets the Tom Ford spring/summer look book Some people wanna see me hanging from a good hook Instead I hang with a language and slang in -The anguish, and pain fit as well, cause it came with us After all these years, carrying this shame with us Now the entire planet, is going insane with us Seven year old kids, carrying flame spitters Fortified fences, mortify senses Crossfire, miss my little daughter, by inches Chemical dependence, medical expenses But no amount of money on earth, can buy vengeance Writing a life sentence, sirens, fire engines Tyrants, seen through the eyes, of the wide lenses Senseless crimes, cause some of us want to drive Benzes But are you tryna ride with us, or against us?

As long as they kill us
And go to Wendy's and have a burger and go to sleep
They gon' keep killing us
But when we die and they die
Then soon we gon' sit at a table, and talk about it, retired
We want some of this earth
Or we'll this goddamn country apart!
