

When You Wake Up (And Start Loving Me)

Freddie Hart

I'll be here when you wake up and start loving me

The warmest heart your woman's touch brings the man right out i n me

You're everything a man could want his woman to be Such a pretty sight for sleepy eyes to wake up and see
And I'll be here when you wake up and start loving me

The feeling that I feel for you God knows it can't be wrong
Cause it's your kind of loving that keeps me going strong
It's so hard to wait till you wake up from your beaty sleep
I'll be here when you wake up and start loving me
I'll be here when you wake up and start loving me
