

Calling

Freddie Jackson

Hello?

Baby?

Wait, don't hang up

Won't you listen to what I've got to say?

I've been missing you

Just... just give me one more try, okay?

Calling

Calling

It's six o'clock in the morning

And I haven't been to sleep, no

Girl, you've got me running

And I'm in love so deep

I know I should've known better

But I was a fool

When Murphy's law is out to get you

You gotta be cool

When friends call your name

I break down and I cry

Got caught in a game

And I tried to mend a lie

Now, I'm calling

I can't hold this feeling any longer

Oh, no, don't you understand

I'm calling

I can't hold back this feeling any longer

It's getting stronger and stronger and stronger

I'm calling

I can't hold this feeling any longer

Ooh, no, oh...

I'm calling

I can't hold back this feeling any longer

Oh, girl

I'd hear your voice inside my head

It's driving me crazy

It's kind of lonely in my bed

You're my only remedy

When friends call your name

I break down and I cry

Ooh, you got me caught in a game

And I tried to mend a lie

Now, I'm calling

I can't hold back this feeling any longer

You're much too much, too much, girl

I'm calling

I can't hold back this feeling any longer

Ooh, it's getting stronger

I'm calling

I can't hold this feeling any longer

Ooh, you're much too much, too much, girl
I'm calling
I can't hold back this feeling any longer
Ooh, ooh-ooh-ooh, ooh...

C-c-c-calling, calling

Just one more try, please?
I can't sleep at night
I'm wonderin' what's goin' on with you
I need you
I'm begging you, baby, please
Oh, baby

I was caught in a game

(Calling)
I can't hold this feeling any longer
No, girl
(I'm need your love, so I'm calling)
I can't hold back this feeling any longer
(Calling)
I'm reaching out for your love
I can hold back, girl
(I'm need your love, so I'm calling)
I'm calling out your name
I'm calling your name, girl
(Any longer)
I can't hold back any longer...
