

Love Is Just A Touch Away

Freddie Jackson

Woke up this morning with a smile upon my face
Had a dream last night that love was here to stay
To know you're not here with me is tearing me apart
Can't you feel the pain that's down inside of my heart?

Gotta feelin' somethin' here is bound to change
Love is just a touch away

Something is happening I think you ought to know
Each time you're near me passion starts to flow
And you give your love to me (give it baby)
you wont regret it?|no no no no no no
Just open up and let me start my show?|girl

Love is just a touch, just a simple touch
Love is just a touch away

Girl if you feel I'm wrong I'll keep holding on Someday you might change, yeah
And I'm gonna do all that I must do
If you promise me that you'll stay

Love is just a touch away, just a touch away
Love is just a touch away, just a touch away

Gotta feelin' somethin' here is bound to change
Love is just a touch away

Love is just a touch, just a simple touch
Love is just a touch away

Come and take my hand (love is just a simple touch)
I wanna be your man
Love is just a touch away girl
