

Will You Be There

Freddie Jackson

Oh...

Will you, will you

Will you be there

Hee, hee...

Ah...

What's going on, what's on your mind

I got the feeling something's missing

Between you and I

Honey, I give no reason for doubt

'Cause you're the only thing in this world

That I can't live without

Maybe I'm just a little paranoid

To think that love can be destroyed so easily, oh...

Baby, please tell me what I feel is wrong

That the bond between us is still as strong

As it was, as it was

Will you be there

When I really need your love

Will you be there

When push comes down to shove

Baby, will you be there

Can I rely on you

To help me when I'm down

I need to know you'll be around

Baby, we know what love's about

And if there's something wrong

We'll find a way to work it out

And maybe we'll see

That nothing has changed

And that you'll feel as much for me

As you did yesterday

I just can't take another sleepless night

Wondering if our love can see the light

Of one more day, yeah, yeah

So open up and let me come inside

I'd love to know what's in your mind

And your heart, tell me

Will you be there

When I really need your love

Will you be there, yeah

When push comes down to shove

Baby, will you be there

Oh, can I rely on you

To help me when I'm down

I need to know that you're around

After all that we've been through

I don't wanna be losing you

Let's just keep holding on

To what we've created

If we give ourselves a chance

We can find the perfect romance
Don't give up on love, baby
Don't give up on love, sugar
Don't give up on love, baby
Love me forever

When I really need your lovin' care
When push comes down to shove
Baby, will you be there
Can I rely on you
To help me when I'm down
I need to know

Will you be there
Will you be there
Whoo, come on
When push comes down to shove
Baby mama
Will you be there
Can I rely on you
To help me when I'm down
I need to know, na-na-know
Na-na-know that you'll be around

(Will you be there)
(Will you be there, will you be there)
Will you be there for me, baby, baby, now
(Will you be there)
(Will you be there, will you be there)
Will you be there
(Will you be there)
Will you, oh, oh...
(Will you be there, will you be there)
Come on, tell me, baby
(Rely on you)
Can I rely on you
Can I re, can I rely-la-la-ly, la-la-ly on you...
