

Sunshine Hits My Face

Freddy Kalas

Peek out my window, babe
Looks like it's rain again
How I wish that day was something new (I wish something new)
Dark clouds in my head
Struggle to get out of bed
What's the point of chasing skies of blue

Yet I'm late on my rent again
When will it ever end, I don't know
Can you help me out?
One stone stuck in my shoe
Two million things to do
But who cares when the sun comes out?

(Sing with me everyone)

Hey, I feel alive today
Like something's 'bout to change
Oh-oh-oh when the sunshine hits my face
Gon' throw my props away
I know I'll be okay
Oh-oh-oh when the sunshine hits my face
Woah oh oh oh, woah oh oh oh
When the sunshine hits my face
Woah oh oh oh, woah oh oh oh
When the sunshine hits my face

I want to travel far, but now my car won't start
I don't have a license anyway (Never had and never will)
I don't care 'cause I've got the time
Flying up like I'm on cloud nine
I'm happy to get my living day to day

But I'm late on my rent again
When will it ever end, I don't know
Can you help me out?
One stone stuck in my shoe
Two million things to do
But who cares when the sun comes out?

(Sing with me everyone)

Hey, I feel alive today
Like something's 'bout to change
Oh-oh-oh when the sunshine hits my face
Gon' throw my props away
I know I'll be okay
Oh-oh-oh when the sunshine hits my face
Woah oh oh oh, woah oh oh oh
When the sunshine hits my face
Woah oh oh oh, woah oh oh oh
When the sunshine hits my face

Woah oh oh oh, woah oh oh oh
When the sunshine hits my face
