Trust Issues

Fredo Bang

Is you ridin' now 'cause I don't know what's up with you
Lot of love, gotta have the same if I'm gon' fuck with you
You too raw, you know I'm raw, that's why I bust with you
Life good, but a nigga still got some trust issues
If I gave you the world, I hope that I can split the cut with you
If I gave you the world, I hope that I can get in touch with you
Might probably switch your side, that's a shame, I grew up with you
Life perfect, but I still got some trust issues

You talking reckless, bitch don't lose control
I don' chose a bag, you can't say I'm choosing hoes
I don' moved away, she say that I'm moving slow
Bitch been actin' funny lately, that hoe need to move her role
Yeah, you know I'm poppin' now, you know I can't trust a soul
I can't take you out to eat in my city, gotta keep a pole
Yeah, I fuck you with a hat 'cause you know this world is cold
Then I tell you, "Pull it off," 'cause I wanna feel some mo'
I'm scared, you can have my baby
You might hate me, you might put me on them papers
I ain't trippin' 'cause I'm rich, fuck it, we'll deal with it later
See you fucking with the opps, my niggas calling you a traitor
Call me Lifeguard Bang 'cause I'm still tryna save

Is you ridin' now 'cause I don't know what's up with you
Lot of love, gotta have the same if I'm gon' fuck with you
You too raw, you know I'm raw, that's why I bust with you
Life good, but a nigga still got some trust issues
If I gave you the world, I hope that I can split the cut with you
If I gave you the world, I hope that I can get in touch with you
Might probably switch your side, that's a shame, I grew up with you
Life perfect, but I still got some trust issues

Heart cold as fuck from all the pain that I've been through
Going to war up in them trenches, now I got blood up on my shoes
Ain't been sleep in 3 days, tryna put one on the news
Steady talkin' sideways, gotta do what you gon' do
I been 'bout that murder for a while, bitch, you knowing me
My momma had 3 boys, so you know it ain't no ho in me
Three convictions, so I'm tryna find a righter way
I got niggas doing letters, never see the light of day
That's not the way

Is you ridin' now 'cause I don't know what's up with you
Lot of love, gotta have the same if I'm gon' fuck with you
You too raw, you know I'm raw, that's why I bust with you
Life good, but a nigga still got some trust issues
If I gave you the world, I hope that I can split the cut with you
If I gave you the world, I hope that I can get in touch with you
Might probably switch your side, that's a shame, I grew up with you
Life perfect, but I still got some trust issues
