

Andy And I, Uh...

Free Throw

Where am I?
I'm lost in missing pieces
Like a puzzle from the thrift store
Left in disarray

Bear in mind
My thoughts are underwhelming
Nothing's ever vibrant
I feel bland and gray

I'm constantly asking myself
What's the difference?
It all seems the same
It makes no sense
And I shouldn't care
I walk around and I continue to breathe in the air

Where am I?
I'm lost in missing pieces
Like a puzzle from the thrift store

Bear in mind
Everyone says that I'm better
I'm not better I'm indifferent
And that's not okay

What's the difference?
It all seems the same
Just forget this
Soon it all will change

Where am I?
I'm lost in missing pieces (Soon it all will change)
Bear in my mind
I'm not better I'm indifferent
