

Equilibrium

Free Throw

The light has started to break
Through my blinds a bit more each day
I'm really starting to think, maybe
I need to find some consistency
Some way

'Cause when I start to rebound
I always seem to stall out
I need to swim before I
Drown

The light is starting to break
Through the haze that I feel each day
I think it's honest to say, maybe
I need to find a consistent way
