

Force of Will

Free Throw

As the sound
Starts to fade away
All around
People start their day
I'm falling into a dream
Breaking on impact
Shattered by time I waste
All around
Echoes of the things that they all say

"You'll fall in line
Life's not fair
Stop stalling time
Wasting years
Why chase a life you may never achieve?
So fall in line
Life's not fair"

Solid ground
Has never been the case
And the sound
Of everyone telling me to chase
A normal life charade
I hate that, so bad
It feels so insulting
To take these dreams
And lay them down
Lay them down

And fall in line
Life's not fair
Stop stalling time
Wasting years
Why chase a life I may never achieve?
So fall in line
Life's not fair
Life's not fair
Life's not fair

I worked so long to be told to go back
I worked so long to be told to go back
I worked too long to be told to go back
I worked too long
Life's not fair
