

Let's Get Invisible

Free Throw

Did you know
That forever and always Meant nothing more than a couple of words and the smile it put on my face
I think that's bullshit
You know it's bullshit
I wonder if you miss me at all or even care about my existence

I'm sitting in my bedroom having sing alongs to songs you've ne ver heard
Or that you probably never care about, I can't figure out what'
s worse
The ease with which you lied and convinced me I was not someone
you'd throw away
Or the fact that it fucking worked
I guess I'll just push play and be a stowaway

Did you feel anything at all
Was I just a way to pass the time until your boredom built a wa ll
And was worth it
It wasn't worth it
The flawless picture inside my head turned out to be imperfect

I'm sitting in my bedroom having sing alongs to songs you've ne
ver heard
Or that you probably never care about, I can't figure out what'
s worse
The ease with which you lied and convinced me I was not someone
you'd throw away
Or the fact that it fucking worked
I guess I'll just push play and be a stowaway

The songs they're droning on and on
As the day's rolling on and on
The songs they're droning on and on
As the day's rolling on and on
The songs they're droning on and on
As the day's rolling on and on
The songs they're droning on and on
As the day's rolling on and on

I'm sitting in my bedroom having sing alongs to songs you've ne
ver heard
Or that you probably never care about, I can't figure out what'
s worse
The songs they're droning on and on

As the day's rolling on and on
The songs they're droning on and on
As the day's rolling on and on
