

Two Beers In

Free Throw

Two beers in
Already feels like it's one of those nights to forget
The more that I drink, the more that I feel broken and alone
At a party with friends

Fuck everything about this

You walk in with the new boyfriend you met just last week
His big grin
He doesn't know that you'll leave him so broken and alone
When it comes to an end

Fuck everything about him

Two beers in
Already feels like it's one of those nights to forget
The more that I drink, the more that I feel broken and alone
