[Verse 1 - Freeway]:
I miss the hood when I'm travelin', get neck when I'm travelin'

Take a flick if you get a chance get that close
Fuck an advance, cause I get that dough

[Verse 2 - Beanie Sigel]:
It's Mack, daddy, young, strappy
No he ain't the OG gangsta
Yes I is, come on don't test I kid
I firebomb cribs like Left Eye did
Notorious like that Bed-Stuy kid, B.I.G. or small you can get it
Dead wrong, like tryin' to brawl a strong armored midget
I pull the nine out my pocket I'm lyin'
I pull the Mac out the closet, start firin'
For you cats outta pocket, stop tryin'
Take that, get back, clap iron
You know, stay low, keep firin', uh

I put the led in the gat, the metal go clap
I lay cats flat on they back, stop fuckin' with this radical cat
You fuck around and need a medical cat
The led'll go clap, your head'll go back, uh
It's B. Sig in the place to be
With two heater on the waist of me, man who's facin' me

[Chorus]

[Verse 3 - Freeway]:

Big nickels down your way don't trip
Get folded down your way, got soldiers down your way
Keep quiet down your way no lip
All of ya'll need to run yo'self
Go get the burna nigga, bang yo'self
Or I come through with the hammer make you lose yo' health
Fast, roll with dashes, move like Cassius Clay
Move yay like caskets, there's a will there's a way
Obey my thirst, move yay through traffic
Without Sprite, without Nike's
I just do it bar break your basket
Yeah, you damn right, without ice
I pull up to your honey car and stuff her basket
International post player, circle the atlas
You don't wanna be ho playas, circle the hood
Bend over backwards, without searchin' for backwoods

[Chorus x2]

[Freeway]:

All of ya'll need to run yo'self
Go get the burna nigga bang yo'self
All of ya'll need to run yo'self
