French Kicks

why dont we take all our weekends in the fall at the same time?
all along youre still there pacin every evening wall to wall and i'm left with mine
walkin away well you know that its nothin talkin away at the paper like you always did and always will when its gettin old why don't we take all the weekdays we can hold innocent hand (?

)
i dont know if its easier to run or let things roll and begin again walkin away well you know that its nothin

what to do, what to do, what to do
