

Wave Blues

French Montana

I'll never love somebody
I'll never love somebody, leave me cold
Trouble song in the moonlight (WAVE BLUES)
Will be my bride (MONTANA)
Leave me cold

Ay, I'm tryna flex till I pull a muscle
Stretch like Bill Russel, after the shuffle
It still ain't even, you can cheat life but you can't cheat the hustle
It's that wavey season
I'll do you like Mike, then Brian Russell
Streets said, go ham, EP 4 M's
I'm from right where the devil from Empty stomach soon, trouble some
I've seen dreams turn to castles
I've seen killers turn to pastors
3 pics, 2 dates, 1 caption
And that tag on your hat getting paid soon
Leave you tied in the dark house, shaderoom
Fuck love, it hurt
Man, I need insurance
But for what it's worth, I'll be a tourist
Panning for flowers, cannons and vowels
Levels and towers,
Youngers in power

I'll never love somebody
I'll never love somebody, leave me cold
Trouble song in the moonlight (WAVE BLUES)
Will be my bride (MONTANA)
Leave me cold

Truth hurt but I ate it
This for all the stacks in every trap I got raided
It still don't feel like I made it
Add the mattress money up, plus what I got in my savings
And I can stuff 10 in a rental car from Avis
The bad guy in my city, we real villains
That's word to the scars on my body that's still healin
Try to break me down but she really outta league
Gotta wipe the tears on Balenciaga sleeves
But imagine me quittin half the way,
Burdens I carry gracefully have people thinkin my back gon break
I made every move that my shadow make
Been through the worst already
Eatin with wolves, sleepin with rattlesnakes
Yeah they seduce you outta love
Like my OG's tellin me to stay out them clubs
I'm gangsta, my confrontations always play out with guns
You overzealed the nigga's, you gotta pay out in blood
Let's go

I'll never love somebody
I'll never love somebody, leave me cold
Trouble song in the moonlight (WAVE BLUES)
Will be my bride (MONTANA)
Leave me cold

Some make it happen, some make excuses
Information ain't nothin if you don't put it to use
What the realest think, Mandala silk
That killer pink, Frank Lucas mink
Ay, paying a reverend won't get you to heaven
For the snakes I see low with that lucky 7
Talkin Ice Cube, Mack 10, Mack 11
Leave your car wet, Garnett, yeah, Kevin
My proposition ain't the competition
It's the drought and the doubt when I saw the vision
Too much love have your dreams turn to Pop Smoke
Killers look familiar, they don't want money they wanna kill ya
In my own lane, crash won't spill the dream
Still do it for Max, Penthouse & Chinx
Gone dry the ink, yeah return to harvest
20 years in, young and the smartest

I'll never love somebody
I'll never love somebody, leave me cold
Trouble song in the moonlight (WAVE BLUES)
Will be my bride (MONTANA)
Leave me cold

I'll never need somebody
I'll never need somebody, leave me alone
A worried mind in the violence
Will be my guide
Will be my guide
