

Fuck A Trend

French The Kid

The most important thing in business is honesty
Integrity, hard work
Family
Never forgetting where we came from
Thank you, Charlene

Ayo TwinTwo, this is a bad boy beat

See, you are what you are in this world
That's either one of two things
Either you're somebody
Or you're nobody

Yo, guess this started from a dream when I was just a kid
Now I'm touring England, I can't say I didn't work for this
I'm in Marbella, drinking cocktails with a seafood dish
Maybe I been changing, different when I always wished
Could be separated from your average school of fish
Never really speculated rumors like them other pricks
Followed all them trends, you couldn't say I did
Fuck it anyway, I risked my sale, I won my bid
Game is really heartless when you think of it
I've seen so much talent, but I know they never take 'em in
On my way to Paris, reminiscing while I sit
I'm just overthinking like it's gonna change a thing
Shit
But it never would
Guess I'll stick to writing till I get my brothers out the hood
Used to speak Sally when she sober I just never could Drugs up in her system, but at home is where her daughter stood
Fuck it though, let me talk some other shit
Music life's so crazy, baby, fans are always loving it
Steady moving 'round my paycheck till I doubled it
Triple my supporters 'cause a quarter don't know half of it
I'm really 'bout this life, but I don't like the fame
Got my vodka with some ice and mixed with lemonade
Girls are on me, but remind myself like every day
If it wasn't for my name, bitch, you wouldn't ask to stay
Met this one girl half a year ago that made me feel
The type of feeling you first get when you try take a pill
We're kinda similar, our trauma taught us just to chill
But can I trust her? Only God knows, G, that's just part of the deal
Never on the bench, my broski, I was truly different
When I buy a watch, I'd never let that kettle glisten
That's just me bro, I won't sit here doin' sneaky dissin'
Thank you, this was French, appreciate the time you took to listen

Where's my money?
Redtop gave you the package
You're supposed to be handing me my money
Here's a jar right here, twenty percent
You got the jar?
That's right
Get the fuck out of here
Ohhh!
What the fuck you gon' do
Huh?

What you doin'?

You gonna shoot me in front of everybody?

Huh?

Come on
