

Feels like I cracked a code and I broke the law
We're standing in the grass at the greenest part

I feel the days get warmer and my grip let go
I'm climbing down the hill that I said I'd die on

I didn't love me for days
You were lovely for staying though

Hold up, I think I'm happy
If I Show up, I think I'm happy, a little lighter
In the parking lot, found up a fiver
Guess I needed a reminder
I think I'm happy

I thought it was genius, overthinking as I ruminated
On a way back when that I know never happened

Making problems is easy, when you gotta go out looking for them
Now I'm climbing down the hill that I thought I'd die on

I didn't love me for days
You were lovely for staying though

Hold up, I think I'm happy
If I Show up, I think I'm happy, a little lighter
In the parking lot, found up a fiver
Guess I needed a reminder
I think I'm happy

Hold up, I think I'm happy
If I Show up, I think I'm happy, a little lighter
In the parking lot, found up a fiver
Guess I needed a reminder
I think I'm happy
