

Insignificant Other

Frenship

I think out loud
When there is there nobody
That will listen to me
In a crowd
There is nobody
That will stand next to me
Ooooo
Ooooo

And if I leave
Will there be anybody
That goes looking for me

I'm an insignificant other
Just a drop in the water
The mistake of a mother
I'm replaceable by anyone else
Insignificant other
Better left undiscovered
And It doesn't matter
Go on and replace me with anyone else

In the night there is nobody
Sleeping next to me
And when I dance
It's just my body
And no company
Ooooo
Ooooo

I'm an insignificant other
Just a drop in the water
The mistake of a mother
I'm replaceable by anyone else
Insignificant other
And it doesn't matter
Go on and replace me with anyone else

I'm made of mud
Water and dust
I'm made of mud
Insignificant other

I'm made of mud
Water and dust
I'm made of mud
Insignificant other
