

Lover Or An Enemy

Frenship

I miss the little things, how it used to be
Long nights, long lines, paying too much for drinks
I miss everything that used to bother me
Conversations, crowded places didn't wanna be

The summer before when we thought we were bored
Nothing's the same nothing has changed (from before)
Now the days go to waste, haven't seen a new face
I can't redecorate the same place anymore

Welcome
To the time of our lives
We're all just losing our minds
Pretending we're alright
I just want someone next to me a lover or an enemy
Welcome
To the time of our lives
We're all just losing our minds
Pretending we're alright
I just want someone next to me a lover or an enemy

I'm tired of busy screens
Always running me
I've gone looking for something
That I can feel
Is it make believe
I want the real thing
Hold me close, make it burn
Can you feel how it hurts?

The summer before when we thought we were bored
Nothing's the same nothing has changed (from before)
Now the days go to waste, haven't seen a new face
I can't redecorate the same place anymore

Welcome
To the time of our lives
We're all just losing our minds
Pretending we're alright
I just want someone next to me a lover or an enemy
Welcome
To the time of our lives
We're all just losing our minds
Pretending we're alright
I just want someone next to me a lover or an enemy

I'm smiling but I'm gone
I can't feel enough
I'm sinking like a stone
Started giving up
I get high for the fun
Just to mix it up
But I'm sinking like a stone

Welcome
To the time of our lives
We're all just losing our minds

Pretending we're alright
I just want someone next to me a lover or an enemy
Welcome
To the time of our lives
We're all just losing our minds
Pretending we're alright
I just want someone next to me a lover or an enemy
