

Nowhere

Frenship

Nowhere is somewhere
Leave a map and all its lines for another time
I thought it was obvious
We could learn from a hand of cards to protect the hearts

If this is the only life we've been given
Then maybe you and I should just live it, live it

We could be goin' nowhere
It could be heaven right here, right on my knees
We could see what comes next, but there's no need
Darling just stop and drop, cause it feels alright to me

If we keep movin' on, boulevards will never stop
We'll be further along but not any closer
When we're two steps ahead we'll never see what's coming next
Now we're missing cards... cause we lost the hearts

If this is the only life we've been given
Then maybe you and I should just live it, live it

We could be goin' nowhere
It could be heaven right here, right on my knees
We could see what comes next, but there's no need
Darling just stop and drop, cause it feels alright to me

It's pretty damn easy to breathe
All you gotta do is stop with me
Take away the weight, love
Look alive with you
It's pretty damn easy to breathe
All you gotta do is stop with me
Take away the weight, love
Look alive with you

We could be goin' nowhere
It could be heaven right here, right on my knees
We could see what comes next, but there's no need
Darling just stop and drop, cause it feels alright to me
We could be goin' nowhere
It could be heaven right here, right on my knees
We could see what comes next, but there's no need
Darling just stop and drop, cause it feels alright to me

It's pretty damn easy to breathe
All you gotta do is stop with me
Take away the weight, love
Look alive with you
