

Same

Frente!

It's me, I have returned
I got a proper education
But I haven't really learned
I took my time, I took a train
Took me in the scenery, took the bees
It can't make me explain my way

I changed my name
I changed the game
I became so different that I remained the same
Same, same, same, same

This is my unbroken heart
I shouldn't be this happy as it falls apart
I like disgrace that's what it takes
To try and be a savior was my first mistake

I'm not afraid, I don't believe
I've never had the nerve
Or need to be a creature that deceives
Shame, shame, shame, shame

This is my unbroken heart
I shouldn't be as happy as it falls apart
If I lose faith, is that's what I made
If I could be a better me, I would be a fave

Same, same, same
Same, same, same
Same, same, same
Same, same, same
Same, same, same
Same, same, same

And this is my unbroken hush
As it falls apart
I like disgrace
That's what it takes
