

Sweet

Frente!

She's my one and only friend
Sweetly going around the bend
Her best laid plans are for my sentiment
It's best I keep my hands to myself, hands to myself
And everything I think I understand to myself

Don't fall, I won't get you
Don't stall, I won't caught too
Don't call, you won't have to at all

She gives me a long slow smile
If anything happens I'd be sure to die
Barefoot and breaths on a hornets nest
My heads so busy I should try to think less, try to think less
For every single no there's gonna be a yes

Don't fall, I won't get you
Don't stall, I won't catch too
Don't call, you won't have to at all

If she goes down, I just have to let her go
She's gotta learn what she doesn't wanna know
Don't wanna know
Don't wanna know
Don't wanna know

Don't fall, I won't get you
Don't stall, I won't catch too
Don't call, you won't have to
Don't fall, I won't get you
Don't stall, I won't catch too
Don't call, you won't have to at all
