

Cockroach Light Switch

Frenzal Rhomb

I stumble through the darkness Still sunken half unconsciousnes
s My muscles take direction From no one else but themselves, Th ey take extreme exception, To this new kind of hell.

And I prayed this'd never happen, Even in my darkest dreams. An d now I'm on a punitive mission, My night will never be the sam e. Now this lifelong trauma's Imprinted on my brain.

My muscels take direction From no one else but themselves, They take extreme exception, To this new kind of hell.
