

Dark Vision

Freternia

Can you face the final dream
Will it shut your weary eyes
It's called insanity
A quest away from light
And all your majesty
It is crushed before your eyes
Ride through eternity
A flight into the night

A journey without question
As the story starts again
One final time
Searching past the ages
Through the realm of the unknown
Stumbling blind

Will they drag you down in madness
And pollute your inner soul
The fallen one awaits
The nameless with no goal
To see what can't be seen
To dream a brand new dream
And all the masters shall fear
When you arise

Can you face the reign of fire
Could you shut your weary eyes
Have you smiled when all is dying
Would you taste the bitter wine
Will teardrops stop from falling
As you run without a goal
It can drag you down in madness
But never take your soul

A journey without question
As the story starts again
One final time
Searching past the ages
Through the realm of the unknown
Stumbling blind

Will, they drag you down in madness
And pollute your inner soul
The fallen one awaits
The nameless with no goal

To see what can't be seen
To dream a brand new dream
And all the masters shall fear
When you arise

Calling am I really left alone
Falling through the realm of the unknown

You can hear them scream
Rise beyond your dream
Bring the suffering again

You don't fear this world
Bring them home again
Why do we become alive

You know the truth inside
And know what must be done
The world that's made of dreams
Can't go away - can't be undone

Will, they drag you down in madness

To dream a brand new dream
When you arise
