

Eye the Shadow of Your Sins

Freternia

Through the silence
I hear them whisper of pain
But I don't believe the words they tell
Crawling out of its skin reborn through sin
Reflection of my darkest dreams

I feel no fear my life s complete this burden
I bear on my own

Now angels deny your prayers
Your life has come to an end
Too late to confess your darkness
Leaving my scars your soul marked forever

Now feel the presence of my wings
I'm the eye the shadow of your sins

In the mist of my dreams I am lost within
Darkest shadow the keeper of sins and
I can see now I can hear wake me not

'Cause I'm dreaming again

In the dark shadows forgiving
The vision cracks and the demons break free

No need to hide the spell has been broken
Salvation through death
And my destiny's complete

Now feel the presence of my wings
I'm the eye the shadow of your sins

I am I bleed
I'm your insanity revealed
I choke your will
I will forever bleed your sins

Feel no fear, my life's complete
Wake me not 'cause I'm dying again
In this place between life and death
It's my kingdom my throne and my grave

I feel how my veins are slowly drained
And the grip of reality fading away
As the watcher reveals
The circle's complete
And the path open wide

Now feel the presence of my wings
I'm the eye the shadow of your sins

In the mist of my dreams I am lost within
Darkest shadow the keeper of sins and
I can see now I can hear wake not
'Cause I'm dreaming again
