

Love Is Fire

Freya Ridings

I feel it burnin' in my veins
Tired of running from the flames, hey, -ames
I've got a stirrin' heart that breaks
You've got a smile that makes the it race, hey, -ace

If you never risk, then you never know
It's like hiding out in the bitter cold
It's true, I know it's true

If you never feel what you never hold
Better risk it all to just let go
It's what I never do

But if love is fire, then I'll burn for you
Yeah, if love is fire, then I'll burn for you

Somehow, you've stolen all my breath
Your lightnin' echoes in my head, hey, head
Somehow, I don't feel alone
I don't know how you know, oh, how you do

If you never risk, then you never know
It's like hiding out in the bitter cold
It's true, I know it's true
Oh, if you never feel what you never hold
Better risk it all to just let go
It's what I never do
But if love is fire, then I'll burn for you
Yeah, if love is fire, then I'll burn for you

Feel the fire
I feel the fire
Like I never do
Like I never do

But if love is fire, then I'll burn for you
Yeah, if love is fire, then I'll burn for you
Yeah, if love is fire, then I'll burn for you
